

Name	INDIAN SHAREOWNERS – A SURVEY
Authors	Dr. L. C. Gupta
Year	1991

CONTENTS

1.     OBJECT AND SCOPE
  - Object of the survey
  - Householders' reluctance to disclose
  - Methodology and the problem of ensuring data genuineness
  - Household as the investing unit
  - The sample
  - The lay-out of the Report
  - Good 'X' Ray picture

PART 1:

GROWTH AND PROFILE OF SHAREOWNERS

2.     THE GROWTH OF SHAREOWNING POPULATION
IN INDIA, 1955-90
  - Period-wise entry into shareownership
  - Estimation methods used
  - Key estimates
  - Debenture types in household portfolios
  - Relevant population segment
  - Regional variations
  - Percentage shareowners in Indian population
3.     INCOME PROFILE OF SHAREOWNING HOUSEHOLDS
  - Shareowners' distribution by income-classes
  - Entry-pattern by income classes
  - Entry-pattern and investment experience
  - Median income of shareowners
  - Shareowners – an upper fringe
  - Incidence by income classes
  - Income class and share investment experience
4.     AGE COMPOSITION OF SHAREOWNERS
  - Indian shareowners becoming younger
  - Periodwise entry pattern by age
  - Shareownership incidence by age
  - Shareowners' distribution by age

5. OCCUPATIONAL COMPOSITION OF SHAREOWNERS

Salaried vs. non-salaried
Focus on households
Incidence of shareownership
Professional groups

6. COMPOSITION OF SHAREOWNERS BY EDUCATION

Middle and upper groups dominant
Incidence by educational class
Accounting knowledge level

PART 2 :

PORTFOLIO DIVERSIFICATION AND SIZE

7 HOW DIVERSIFIED ARE SHARE PORTFOLIOS

Inadequate diversification
Diversification and share investment performance
Diversification by income class
Diversification by age class

8 PORTFOLIO SIZE BY CURRENT VALUE

Median value
Share portfolio size and investment performance
Portfolio size by income class

PART 3:

SHAREOWNERS' EXPERIENCES ABOUT THEIR PORTFOLIO PERFORMANCE

9 SHAREOWNERS' INVESTMENT EXPERIENCE:
HOW SATISFACTORY

Over-all experience of share investment
Diversification and investment performance experience
Portfolio size and investment performance experience
Income-class and investment performance experience
Educational class and investment performance experience
Occupational class and investment performance experience
Age-class and investment performance experience
Entry-period into shareownership and investment performance experience

PART 4 :
PERCEPTIONS, PREFERENCES, INTENTIONS

- 10 INVESTORS' RISK PERCEPTIONS
Findings
Theory contradicted
Irrational practices
- 11 ASSET PREFERENCE PATTERN : AN OVER-ALL PICTURE
Relative popularity of financial assets
Ranking by market penetration
Main findings
Least preferred financial assets
Uses of the table
- 12 ASSET PREFERENCE PATTERN BY INCOME LEVEL
Understanding investors' needs
Liquidity need weighs heavy
Tax influence
Provident funds
Equity shares
Mutual fund schemes
Life insurance
Incidence increases with income
- 13 MOBILISING SAVINGS OF NON-SHAREOWNERS
Upper class character of shareownership
Findings
Non-shareowners' preference pattern
- 14 MORE ON INVESTORS' PREFERENCES:
RESULTS OF A SIMULATION EXERCISE
Top position
Second position
Third position
Fourth position
Allocations among assets by individual investors
Collective allocation among assets
- 15 INVESTMENT INTENTIONS
The technique
The findings
- 16 INVESTORS' PREFERENCES AMONG MUTUAL

FUND SCHEMES

- A versatile investment product
- Aspects examined
- The demand for 'guaranteed' return
- Scheme types
- Non-financial aspects

- 17      INVESTORS' TIME HORIZONS
- Investors determine market behaviour
  - Intended durations of shareholdings
  - Actual durations of holdings
  - Shareowning and share-trading
  - An implication

PART 5 :

SERVICE AND INFORMATION QUALITY

- 18      SERVICE TO INVESTORS
- General
  - Stockbrokers' services
  - Complaints against companies
  - Odd-lot difficulty
  - New issues vs. secondary market purchases/sales
  - New issue market more popular
  - Effect of income level
  - Concluding comments
- 19      INFORMATION, MARKET EFFICIENCY AND EMH
- Concept of market efficiency in Indian context
  - Damage from misleading information
  - Information, the lay investor and the expert